WHAT GOV. CARTER SAYS OF SARGENT

DOES NOT THINK THAT PLANTERS
NEED FEEL APPREHENSIVE
OVER THE REPORT.

Governor Carter does not think that the report of Commissioner General Sargent, will be so adverse to the interests of the Hawaiian Islands.

"I believe," said the Governor this morning, "that the visit of Sargent this time, has resulted in acquainting him better with myself, with the members of the board of immigration and especially with those members of this board who are sugar planters, than he had before. I believe that a better feeling exists between them than ever before. In my opinion the remarks of Sargent relative to his views on the Japanese situation here and his purposes in investigating the situation have been misunderstood. I believe that he made a special inquiry into the employment in the interest of mainland people, of Japanese at Honolulu and he may make recommendations that may result in that condition being stopped. I do not believe that it means that the immigration of Japanese to these islands is to be stopped. Sargent learned, I think, that our people here are not men who are trying to evade the immigration laws but are acting in a quite contrary way. He expressed himself as pleased with the conditions attending the arrival of the immigrants by the S. S. Sverdrup.

"I do not believe the report that there are two regiments of Japanese here in Honolulu, as such. Undoubtedly there are a number of former soldiers of the Japanese in Honolulu and have come to Honolulu to secure employment but they are not here as any organization. I have too high a regard for the Japanese government to believe that it would be party to such a proceeding.

"I am in favor of Hawaii having a national guard and I will recommend to the next legislature to make an appropriation to maintain the guard."

The Mt. Dajo Hero On The Sherman

COL. DUNCAN WHO LED SIXTH INFANTRY TO VICTORY IN BATTLE OF LAVA CONE.

Aboard the transport Sherman, which arrived this morning from the Orient, are Colonel J. W. Duncan and Captain B. W. Atkinson of the famous Sixth Infantry which stormed the crater on the island of Jolo and in desperate battle cleaned out the horde of fanatics. Moro fighters entrenched therein. The country has rung with the fame of the Sixth and Colonel Duncan is in line, according to the talk of the army, for a brigadier-general's star.

Captain Atkinson, who was adjutant of the Sixth and who was with Duncan at the battle of which so much has been written in the press of the world, is practically a major, merely waiting to be assigned to a vacancy. It is probable that he will be detailed as major of the Fourth Infantry.

Colonel Duncan comes of fighting stock, both his father and grandfather having been brigadier-generals.

Colonel Duncan spoke of the battle of the lava cone in a modest way and his sentences were short. There had been a great deal of criticism of the killing, in that desperate struggle, of women who had mixed with the enemy and were fighting, too, but such criticism could easily be made by people far away and unacquainted with the facts. First of all, when the fire was opened, it was impossible to know the make-up of the enemy; only their location was known. Then, when the charge came, with the women dressed or undressed like the men, it was difficult to say which was which. Besides, the enemy had every opportunity of surrender.

Said the New York Evening Mail of March 10, this year, referring to the struggle and Duncan's victory:

"Col. Duncan's charge up a mountain side on the island of Jolo, with guns lifted by black and tackle 300 feet, with men climbing under fire up an angle of 50 degrees into the crater of a volcano, and the extermination of the whole defending force of Moros, is entitled to rank with Hooker's fight above the clouds, or with Davis' routing of the Modocs out of the lava beds. It is great battling, worthy of a high place in our annals.

"It is to be regretted that fifteen brave soldiers' lives must, at this late date, be laid down to rid Jolo of a nest of thieves and murderers—for no stretch of imagination can make anything less of them—but the sacrifice will mean assurance of safety for thousands. It was Gen. Wood's duty to secure peace and protection for the orderly life which has taken the place of anarchy under our dominion in Su. luland.

"Anti-imperialists will raise the cry of 'massacre' because no Moro got out of Mount Dajo crater alive. But this much is to be said for the Moro brigade—he has no use for life under defeat, nor any idea of stopping fighting until he is shot. The resistance of these men was to the death.

"No other Philippine natives that the Moros needed such an exhibition of American determination as this, and now that the men of Jolo have had it, they will require no further demonstration of our purpose."

The Sixth Infantry is now at Helena, Nebraska, and Col. Duncan is returning to join his regiment. He and Captain Atkinson were ordered to Manila as witnesses in the trial of Captain Kocher who was accused of making frivolous charges against Colonel Scott, and who, when reprimanded by General Wood, wrote an explanation that was considered disrespectful and because of which he was again tried.

F. J. Dougherty, whose brother is James Dougherty of Wichman & Co., Honolulu, is the intelligence officer of the Sherman.

Among the Sherman passengers are Colonel J. W. Duncan, the man who took the crater full of desperate fanatic Moros on the island of Jolo, Captain B. W. Atkinson, who was with Duncan as adjutant of the famous Sixth Infantry.

Major E. F. Taggart who figured in the sensational Ohio Taggart divorce case and Captain A. M. Kimball, who has been to Manila as witness in a military trial.

The Sherman has a big passenger list. Included are officers on leave or ordered to the mainland for transfer, the families of officers of the army and the navy, discharged men, enlisted men transferred sick-leave soldiers, ex-soldiers, a few taken home insane and a great many going to the coast for orders. Altogether there are about 450 passengers aboard the Sherman. None of these are for Honolulu.

Premium lists and entry blanks are to be had of the secretary.

QUARTERMASTER FOR HONOLULU

U. S. A. T. THOMAS BRINGS CAPTAIN HUMPHREY TO SUCCEED HIS BROTHER.

The U. S. A. transport Thomas, Captain Lynam arrived from San Francisco early today, getting into the naval ship before 9 o'clock. She sailed from San Francisco on December 5 and would have reached port last evening but for cross-wind and misty weather down. She sailed for Guam, Manila and Nagasaki tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. From Nagasaki she will return to the coast by way of Honolulu. She brought 235 sacks of mail for Honolulu.

Among the passengers for Honolulu is Captain E. H. Humphrey to take the post of depot quartermaster here. He is the brother of the former depot quartermaster, C. F. Humphrey.

Aboard the Thomas are 18 officers for the Philippines, for no distinct command, 7 U. S. N. and U. S. M. C. officers, for Manila; 2 officers of the Philippine Constabulary; 6 civil employees of the war department; 3 civil employees of the navy department; 45 civilians connected with the war department, 19 connected with the navy department and 22 of insular departments; 2 army nurses and 121 enlisted men of the U. S. A., U. S. N., and U. S. M. H. S.

Colonel Rogers who was major of the 20th Infantry, is returning to the Philippines, promoted. He was in Mindanao and prominently identified with the capture of the terror Dato Ali.

Captain Morrow is now quartermaster of the Thomas, succeeding Captain Humphrey who comes to take his brother's former place as depot quartermaster here. The Thomas carries a new surgeon in Doctor Duncan who was formerly stationed in Manila and went to the mainland on leave, only to be caught for the transport service. Dr. Foster was formerly the surgeon of the ship.

Emil Schulz, U. S. M. C., Norman McLeod, 10th Infantry and Manuel Carrera, seaman, are passengers for Honolulu.

Surgeon and Mrs. Granville L. Anger, Surgeon A. J. Berger, Major and Mrs. L. H. Moses and 2 children, Miss E. H. Potts, and Miss Read are passengers for Guam.

KIMBALL DID NO WRONG

Among the passengers for the coast aboard the transport Sherman is Captain Amos W. Kimball who has been to Manila as a witness in the matter of charges alleging irregularities in connection with the shops there which were formerly under his administration. As there were two officers preceding him in charge and two officers succeeding, it was necessary that he be present as a witness to testify in regard to conditions as he found them and left them. There was no blame attached to Kimball. There were no irregularities, it was found, during his charge.

SCHOOLS LET OUT.
This morning on account of the heavy rains several of the schools this morning turned the pupils loose. The small boys who did show up were all wet through and the majority of teachers thought it better to let them go.

THE ROADS OF KAUAI

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Kauai county the County Road Supervisor reported that the regrading at Keahi had been completed and that the fencing of the pail at Kailiwal was well under way. As soon as this job was done the regrading of the rest of the Kilauea hills would be started. In Kawaihau one of the concrete culverts at Papa had been finished and the other would be completed in a few days. In Lihue the sheds for the machinery had been erected and the construction of an inverted siphon on the Nawiliwili road would be completed during the week. At Koloa the regrading near the mill had been done. In Wainae the unfinished grade at Hanapepe was done and a number of minor repairs had been effected. The report was accepted and placed on file.

The Board authorized the continuance of the regrading work at Koloa in the district of Hanalei.

It was decided to table the petition from Koloa for an increase in the price of tunnel work on recommendation of the Road Supervisor.

It was the matter of the road to the Catholic Church in Koloa the Board thought it wise to defer action until more important work in that district had been completed.—The Garden Island.

DAMAGE DONE BY THE RAINS

FLUME IN MAKIKI WASHED AWAY—NUANU DAM INJURED—BRIDGE WASHED AWAY.

Assistant Superintendent of Public Works Howard and Road Supervisor Sam Johnson started out this forenoon to investigate the extent of the damage done to Honolulu and vicinity by the storm.

The most serious damage reported was to the lateral storm drain flume in the Makiki district. This flume cost from $16,000 to $12,000 to build, and a large, if not the entire part of it, has been washed away. A considerable portion of the Makiki district is flooded in consequence. The extent of the damage can not be determined yet.

There has been some damage done to the Nuanu dam. Considerable gravel and debris has been washed into the dam by the water and one of the temporary flumes behind the dam wall has been carried away.

A little bridge on the Diamond Head road between Judge Dole's residence and the Wilcox place was washed out.

Other damages is reported from other sections of the city and the various road officials are investigating the extent of the damage.

SHRINERS TO TREAD HOT SANDS

Preparations for the Shriners annual "stunt" have been completed, and the program and invitations have been issued. Aloha Temple always gets out a very artistic souvenir for the occasion—this does not include the "souvenirs" that are handed to the novices—and the circular prepared this season by H. D. Couzens is up to the standard.

The novices and the patrol will assemble at the Masonic Temple on Alakea and Hotel streets at 1:30 p. m. and then proceed to Progress Hall to meet the officers of the Temple. The parade will start at 2 p. m. The line of march will probably be down Fort street to King, to the Palace grounds. A drill will be given by the patrol at Palace Square. Captain Sam Johnson has been drilling the patrol for weeks and he is said to have them to even a higher standard than his own famous company in the Hawaiian National Guard. Following the drill the parade will return to Progress Hall where the "ceremonial session" will be held. This is the session where the novices come in for "treatment."

MAUI COURTS DO NOT COST MUCH

Attorney General Peters returned this morning from his trip to Maui. He secured data relative to the prosecution of criminal cases on the island of Maui. The court sessions have been conducted on Maui at comparatively small cost and the figures secured by Peters will have to be carefully considered before he will be able to arrive at any definite conclusion regarding them.

It is his intention to secure similar data from Hawaii, Kauai and Oahu, and after securing that information to prepare his estimates and biennial report for Governor Carter.
